Learning Support Assistants Candidate Pack

A letter from our CEO

I am delighted that are thinking about joining the team at PiP. I hope this pack helps you understand our work, how we support our students to achieve their goals, and gives you the information you need to apply for the role of Learning Support Worker.

PIP works in the Westminster and Kensington & Chelsea communities to support adults with learning disabilities and autism to achieve their potential, move towards independence, and live their best lives. We were established in 1983 by parents wanting more challenging and ambitious support for their children and we now celebrate 40 years of impact. Our history is rich & varied and we have grown from 25 students a decade ago to near 90 students today.

From our custom-adapted centre on Kensal Road, where we moved in 2022, we run four key curriculum areas: Creative and performing arts; Employability, Health & wellbeing, and Independent Living Skills. Alongside this work we run services like Gig Buddies which supports with adults with learning disabilities to access social events.

We challenge ourselves to be innovative and deliver a truly unique level of support and opportunities for people with a learning disability and autism. We work hard to empower our students to become as independent as they can be and live a life of their choice, despite the barriers. Everyone on the team is a vital part of ensuring that we do for the people we support while keeping a strong focus on fun.

Learning Support Assistants are vital for our organisation and form a key part of our team. If you who want to be part of a supportive and ambitious organisation where there will be opportunities for personal and professional development and growth, I do hope you will consider applying for the role. If you have any questions I would be happy to discuss the role with you.

Yours sincerely,
Denise Largin
CEO

Who we are:

PIP works in the Westminster and Kensington & Chelsea communities to support adults with learning disabilities and autism to achieve their potential, move towards independence, and live their best lives.

With around 30 staff and a Board of 8, we work to empower over 85 adults with Learning Disabilities and Autism every year to achieve their potential, move towards independence and live their best lives. We believe our people are our largest asset and we are investing in expanding our team by around 25% in the next 12 months to deliver an ambitious strategy, meet service demand and ensure our colleagues have the capacity to offer the quality of service we're known for in our community.

Our approach is student-led with our curriculum and each student's timetable the result of a collaborative approach with students, families, and social workers. Student goals can vary widely from learning to cook a meal to securing part-time work, to strengthening friendships or showcasing their creativity. Each student at PiP is referred by our Local Authority partners and with a waiting list of over 40 students we are confident we offer a top-tier service.

Financially we are stable with strong financial reserves and an income mix circa 75% commissioned services and 25% philanthropic partnerships. From this position of strength we plan to invest in the team, new services and projects to expand our provision and secure more impact in our community.

Why we need you:

Our organisation is expanding with evermore people we strive to help and support, so we need to expand our team. This role is part of an investment in new roles for PiP to secure the best impact for our students.

If you see solutions, not problems, are adaptable and resilient and have a person-centred approach in all that you do then we are looking for you to join our team as we grow our services and expand our impact to support more adults with learning disabilities and autism.

Who we support and why:

At PiP, our focus is on teaching and learning life skills; PiP students range in age from 18 to 64 and our average student is around 34 years old.

PiP students have a range of learning disabilities including Down's Syndrome, Fragile X, Autism Spectrum Conditions (ASC), dual diagnosis with mental health problems and/or physical health conditions such as Diabetes and Epilepsy.

PiP's team deliver person-centred support to each of our students to identify their strengths, interests and passions. We support them and their families/carers to maximise opportunities in their community through signposting and working in partnership with like-minded organisations.

Structural inequalities in society mean that people with learning disabilities are not always recognised for their skills and talents and given the opportunity to live independent lives. We want to change that. And with your skills and talents, we can make sure that every PiP student has a voice and can make their own choices about their own lives.

We are keen for our students to always have a voice, including at PiP, and so every week our students have a students meeting with their own agenda where they can express their views on PiP and ask about elements like new staff, our leisure programmes, or fundraising. Every year our students elect student representatives to elevate their views to senior management and our board. Our current representatives are Shardonnay & Rashedul.

Our structure

After staff feedback on career progression and student development, PiP has in the last two years adapted our staff structure. This structure added a number of new roles to reflect our recent expansion in student numbers as part of our new centre. While allowing our staff to greater specialise and offer career progression for our student-focused colleagues into management positions.

Our Senior Management Team is formed of our CEO, Service Manager, and Head of Development & Engagement - this body serves to set the strategic direction for PiP alongside our trustee board. Our day-to-day Management team comprises these roles and our two managers for students services & curriculum co-ordination.

We then have new curriculum coordinators for each of our four curriculum areas who set the direction for each learning theme and work alongside our development workers and learning support assistants to deliver sessions for students.

What we're looking for

In this diverse and challenging role, you will be responsible for:

- Supporting PiP students to participate and engage in a flexible programme of learning and development and achieve their ambitions.
- Supporting Development Workers to deliver a flexible and empowering programme of learning and development sessions across areas of our four key pathways: Independent Living Skills; Creative and Performing Arts; Health and Wellbeing; & Employment and Vocational Training.
- 1:1 key working responsibility to support students and their families to reach their independence goals.

Our ideal candidate will have experience of working with people with learning disabilities, or a similar vulnerable service user group, along with a strong commitment to taking a person-centred approach to the role.
