Fruitful Cafe Team Member Candidate Pack

PiP Pursuing Independent Paths

A letter from our CEO

I am delighted that are thinking about joining the team at PiP. I hope this pack helps you understand our work, how we support our students to achieve their goals, and gives you the information you need to apply for the role of Fruitful Cafe Team Member.

PIP works in the Westminster and Kensington & Chelsea communities to support adults with learning disabilities and autism to achieve their potential, move towards independence, and live their best lives. We were established in 1983 by parents wanting more challenging and ambitious support for their children and we now celebrate 40 years of impact. Our history is rich & varied and we have grown from 25 students a decade ago to near 90 students today.

Around two-thirds of those we support have employment as a long-term goal. We have a broad employment programme designed to offer the skills & confidence necessary to secure and maintain jobs. A major part of this programme has been our in-house work experience opportunities. Since October 2025 the Fruitful Community Cafe has run one day per week offering four work experience opportunities and providing pay-what-you-can meals to dozens of customers every Tuesday. From February 2027 we're going full-time Monday-Friday and so we are expanding our team for this growth.

We challenge ourselves to be innovative and deliver a truly unique level of support and opportunities for people with a learning disability and autism. We work hard to empower our students to become as independent as they can be and live a life of their choice, despite the barriers. Everyone on the team is a vital part of ensuring that we do for the people we support while keeping a strong focus on fun.

This new role of Fruitful Cafe Team Member is vital for the success of the new expanded Cafe so I do hope you will consider applying for the role. If you have any questions we would be happy to discuss the role with you.

Yours sincerely,
Denise Largin
CEO

Who we are:

PIP works in the Westminster and Kensington & Chelsea communities to support adults with learning disabilities and autism to achieve their potential, move towards independence, and live their best lives.

With around 32 staff and a Board of 8, we work to empower over 85 adults with Learning Disabilities and Autism every year to achieve their potential, move towards independence and live their best lives.

Our approach is student-led with our curriculum and each student's timetable the result of a collaborative approach with students, families, and social workers. Student goals can very widely from learning to cook a meal to securing part-time work, to strengthening friendships or showcasing their creativity. Each student at PiP is referred by our Local Authority partners and with a waiting list of over 40 students we are confident we offer a top-tier service.

Financially we are stable with strong financial reserves and an income mix circa 75% commissioned services and 25% philanthropic partnerships. From this position of strength we plan to invest in the team, new services and projects to expand our provision and secure more impact in our community.

Who we support and why:

At PiP, our focus is on teaching and learning life skills; PiP students range in age from 18 to 64 and our average student is around 34 years old.

PiP students have a range of learning disabilities including Down's Syndrome, Fragile X, Autism Spectrum Conditions (ASC), dual diagnosis with mental health problems and/or physical health conditions such as Diabetes and Epilepsy.

PiP's team deliver person-centred support to each of our students to identify their strengths, interests and passions. We support them and their families/carers to maximise opportunities in their community through signposting and working in partnership with like-minded organisations.

Structural inequalities in society mean that people with learning disabilities are not always recognised for their skills and talents and given the opportunity to live independent lives. We want to change that. And with your skills and talents, we can make sure that every PiP student has a voice and can make their own choices about their own lives.

We are keen for our students to always have a voice, including at PiP, and so we have two student forums to ensure everyone's voices can be heard. Our Student Council ask the big questions including holding our board and SMT to account. While every week all our students have student meeting with their own agenda where they can express their views on PiP and ask about elements like new staff, our leisure programmes, or sessions.
